

401 Brooklyn Building, 32 Blackheath road
London, SE10 8DA. UK

asma@uaeu.ac.ae

Geomorphologist

political stability is a fundamental basis for human and environmental rights

OBJECTIVES

- Consolidate human and environmental rights as a cohesive concept in the global perspective
- Contribution to civic engagement
- Focus on human culture and environment from a global perspective
- Working towards highlighting and supporting the importance of political stability in conflict zones.

EDUCATION

2007, Associate Professor in Physical Geography, University of UAE

1996, Ph.D. in Physical Geography (Science), University of Liverpool

1988, B.A in Geography, University of UAE

AWARDS

2012 Middle East Women Leaders Awards (UAE)

2009–2010 Fulbright Scholarship (US)

2005 Abdul Hameed Shoman Award for Young Arab Scientists (Jordan)

2004 Al-Sharja Award for Arabic Creativity (UAE)

1997 Rashid Award (UAE)

EXPERIENCE

2010–2012 Associate Professor in Geography program, University of UAE

2008–2009 Cultural Attaché, UAE Embassy in Washington DC.

1996–2007 Assistant Professor, Geography program, University of UAE.

1990–1996 Teaching Assistant, Geography program, University of UAE,

1988–1990 Geography schoolteacher, Ras Al Khaimah

CIVIC ENGAGEMENTS

2013–Present Founder and CEO of SPHER International

2010 CEO of Emirates Geographical Society (EGS)

2009 Founder of Emirates Geographical Society (EGS)

2003– up to present member of G.C.C Geographical Society

2001–2003 member and the Chief of Environment Friends Society

2002 up to present member of American Geophysical Union (AGU)

1996 up to present member of British Society for Geomorphology (BSG)